- [Note]
1. The "full-time instructor courses" referred to here include courses taught part time by full-time instructors in other undergraduate and graduate schools, departments and institutes, etc.
 2. Name courses in the Specialized Education and General Education columns according to the classifications determined by the university. Even in this case, divide courses broadly into specialized and general education.
 3. Create a table for each semester if the university uses a semester based system and the courses available are different in each semester.

- [Note: KG]
1. This excludes concentration courses held from the spring semester of academic year 2011.
 2. The Academic Affairs Section of the Academic Affairs Department and the Institute for Human Rights Research and Education courses have been included in the Center for Common Educational Programs since 2011.
 3. The Japanese course in the Language Center and Japanese Language Course in the International Education Program Office were transferred to the Center for Japanese Language Education.
