

Dear Prospective Students,

Graduate School of International Studies
Kwansei Gakuin University

Double Master's Program in the Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS) with the Institute of Business and Accounting (IBA) in Kwansei Gakuin University

We will start the Double Master's Program from April 2019 with International Management Course (IMC) of IBA in Kwansei Gakuin University. This program will allow students to earn Master's Degrees in International Studies and MBA in three years. Students who got into the Double Master's Program use English as their instruction language in Research Seminar and Master's Thesis. This Master's Program accepts students whose first language is English and / or English proficiency is judged to be adequately approved.

« Eligibility »

Applicants who are successfully admitted to GSIS for April 2019 enrollment and those who meet both 1 and 2 requirements below.

1. Those who wish to have an academic advisor in Economics and Management fields.
2. Those who passed the interview with IBA professors, and who has permitted to take courses taught in English.

*We open the economics and management field's professor's list, those who teach Research Seminar in English and accept students who write the Master's Thesis in English.

« Summary of Double Master's Program »

The first year	GSIS	At the time of enrollment	Interview with professors of IBA after the applicants admitted to GSIS
		1 st year of Master's Program	Passing the interview above then taking classes of IBA
2 nd year of Master's Program		Take a transfer examination to IBA ※IBA will recognize around 22 credits previously earned at GSIS.
		Screening of Master's Thesis and earning credits to meet the graduation requirements of GSIS
Completion of GSIS Program		Meet all the graduation requirements and complete the program
The third year		IBA	Transfer to 2 nd year of IBA
	Completion of IBA program		Meet all the graduation requirements and complete the program

※Required Graduation Credits for GSIS is 30 credits and 44 credits for IBA

« Admission Information »

Graduate School of International Studies will have three different admission examinations as below.

Admission Information for Double Master's Program: < English > (General and International Admission)

Academic Advisor's Research Field	Applicant Status	Preferred Instruction Language	Double Master's Program	Admission Type
Economics and Management	General	English	Do not apply	Not Applicable to any admission in GSIS
			Will apply	< English > (General and International Admission)
	Do not apply		Not Applicable to any admission in GSIS
	Will apply		< English > (General and International Admission)
	International	General	Japanese	Do not apply	< Japanese > (General Admission)
				Do not apply	< Japanese > (International Admission)

※All applicants must consult with the professor who they'd like to have as an academic advisor prior to the application whether they wish to apply for Double Master's Program or not.

※Instruction language for applicants who apply for Double Master's Program would be English.

※If you have questions regarding applications and/or what you learn in GSIS, please contact to SIS Office (GSIS).